ADVANCED ISSUES IN CROSS-CULTURAL COUNSELING
CO 730

Semester: Spring 2009
Class meeting: Tuesday 8:00 to 10:45 am

I COURSE DESCRIPTION

The purpose of this course is to help students develop a counseling and pastoral care ministry, which will be sensitive and helpful to various cultural groups. Caring ministry, whether it be in the USA or overseas, requires a basic understanding not only of the worldviews of various Ethnic groups but also one’s own possible stereotypes, which may hinder effectiveness in the caring process. This course is an attempt to integrate material scripturally, experientially, psychologically and theologically. In addition, the course will examine issues of racism, differences in religio-cultural values and world-views, verbal and non-verbal communication and other factors that effect the processes of counseling. Lectures, guest speakers, videos, role-plays, group discussions and a cross-cultural inventory (books and articles) will be used to present techniques and approaches in working in cross-cultural contexts.

V COURSE ASSIGNMENTS

1. Experiential (30 points):
   Students will seek to develop a relationship over the whole semester with someone from another culture (e.g. International persons or students at Seminary. Another option is to choose your practicum setting if it is with a cross-cultural population). The main objective of engaging in the cross-cultural experience is to accord an experiental opportunity for theoretical material being discussed in class. You will also be expected to draw from your experiences in writing the three reflection papers traversed throughout the semester. Each paper will be no more than 2 double spaced pages and is worth 10 points. Due dates: February 24th; March 24th & April 21st

2. Book & Chapter summaries: (30 points)
a) Chapter summary (10 points): You are to hand in 1 summary reflection and response (2 pages -double spaced) of a chapter that meaningfully spoke to you from the assigned chapters in Sue & Sue. The chapter summary is due the day your choice of chapter is assigned in class.

b) Book summary (20 points): (You are also to submit 1 book-summary and reaction (double spaced 5 pages) of Mucherera's book; This summary reflection is due April 7th 2009:
   On all the summary reflections you will be graded according to the following criteria:
   a). A good summary showing you read the material, b). Interactions with the material, comments on what was helpful and not helpful and why!

3. Role Plays & group Presentation: 80 points (Due on April 14th; 21st; 28th; May 5th & May 12th respectively). The class will be divided into 4 -5 groups depending on the size of the class. The group will identify a family or an ethnic minority person(s), (same ethnic origins) from a cultural background with which the students in the group are not familiar. (If there is an ethnic minority in your group you cannot study that particular individualâ€™s culture). In this class, we are studying cultures that are Indigenous or those of ethnic minorities (which excludes all Caucasian, Western or Euro cultures). The students should seek to be learners, especially in regards to family structures, traditions; and worldviews which would impact the counseling process. Full presentation will be in two parts as outlined below:

a) Group Research Presentation on a particular Ethnic minority group. (40 points)
   As a group you will have 30 minutes to present your findings based on research and/or interviews about: the ethnic groups' history in brief, experiences of oppression, family values systems, cultural world-view, religious beliefs, influence of colonization and Christianity; and stereotypes held by others about that particular group. The students' presentation is integration of both the personal findings (interviews) and outside written sources (research) in support or contrary to your findings based on the interviews. One group paper will be handed to the professor at the beginning of the presentation in class.
b) Video Role plays as part of class presentation (40 points): Your particular group will function as an ethnic family unit. Someone will play the role of counselor. Others will play members of the family unit and must show adequate knowledge from readings, research, and interviews, of their awareness of the particular ethnic role they are playing. The role-play will be video taped, and presented in class by the group. Twenty (25 minutes) will be allocated for the role-play. I expect you to practice outside of class at times agreeable to your group. Feedback from peers and the instructor will follow soon after your role-play from the video. Peer grading will contribute to the overall score.

Total time allocated for each group research presentation, role play and class feedback is:
- research presentation: 50 minutes
- video role play 25 minutes
- Class feedback 25 minutes
Total 90 minutes (1 hr, 30 minutes)

Choose a minority ethnic group other than that presented by your group class presentation. Write a research paper of 12-13 pages double spaced (I will not read more than 13 pages, so limit your papers to a maximum of 13 pages), addressing and/or presenting:

a). A brief historical background of ethnic groups' traditional religio-cultural values (world view); influences or experiences of colonization and/or oppression, Christianity; and family values systems. (Please do not choose people considered Western or Caucasians). (2-3 pgs)
b). Address how the ethnic minority group continues to experience inequality and give examples of stereotypes, prejudices, racism, oppression, language (verbal and non-verbal) barriers in providing counseling with the particular ethnic group chosen for the paper; (2) c). Address how the counseling relationship is affected by the level of counselor/counselee racial/personal identity development; (2) d). The question why North American Caucasian or Western theories and approaches in general are not always appropriate and relevant for some ethnic minorities in counseling, particularly with the ethnic group you have chosen;
- and provide two theories or approaches (with some adjustments) you believe would be most appropriate for working with families in this group and be sure to state why you believe so;
- and what cultural sensitive skills are needed in working with the ethnic group you chose? (2) e). How do you integrate spirituality in counseling with the specific group you chose (also read Counseling Across Cultures p.78-80, 273-287, 291-292). Specifically
- state from your research, the importance of spirituality for this ethnic minority group and what traditional religious beliefs and Christian values that could easily be integrated into a counseling relationship;
- and (from a Biblical perspective) what mandates are there in providing counseling to those of different culture from one's own? (3 pages)

NB: You should not write this paper on the ethnic minority group you presented or role-played. If you are from outside the USA, you should not choose ethnic minorities from the continent, which you come. Basically, you should not write on ethnic groups of European heritage (Euro-Americans, Europeans, Caucasian-Canadians, etc. or your own or those from your continent of origin).

4. Class participation and attendance (20 points) are expected. Your final grade will be adversely affected by lack of participation and any classes missed without proper excuse. 4 missed classes will automatically constitute an F
