Meetings: During 02/09/2009 to 05/22/2009 on Tuesday from 9:00a to 11:40a in EXLEXL.

Maximum Registration: 50
Catalog Description: As a basic course in Inductive Bible Studies, its primary purpose is to enable the student to begin developing an inductive approach to Bible study, especially in the areas of observation and interpretation. Parts of the Gospel of Mark are used to demonstrate and to practice a methodical approach that can be used in other biblical books. Some of the main themes of the Gospel are highlighted in the process.

Objectives:

I will post a full syllabus on the first day of class. For now, here are the required texts.

Jim

Required Texts:

2. Revised Standard Version of the NT (preferred because the text is less cluttered with paragraph headings, etc; NIV, NRSV, TNIV are also OK).

3. ONE of the following contemporary commentaries
4. You will also need access to Joel Green, Scot McKnight, and I. Howard Marshall, eds. Dictionary of Jesus & the Gospels. IVP, 1992. I will require reading from this fairly regularly. I highly recommend buying it for your own library.
