Course Objectives (See Learning Goals!)
This course is an introduction to the development of the Christian church from the Apostolic Period to the dawn of the Reformation. Emphasis is placed upon the central historical movements, figures, and theological issues of the period from the global perspective, with attention to their relevance for contemporary Christian ministry. Major primary texts and interpretive studies will be read and reflected.

Course Assignments, Requirements, and Evaluation

1. Class Attendance and Participation (10%)
2. A Reading Report and Discussion from Reading Assignment (10%)
3. A Historical/Theological Biography (5%)
   Write a 2-3 page theological history (a personal inventory in the ecclesiological and/or movement context), reflecting your own journey around Christian communities (traditions, churches, mission organizations, para-church movements and so on). What might be one or two central theological themes that have given you interests, questions, and challenges in your life, study, and ministry (history and contemporary relevance)?
   Due: Sep 11
4. Two Reflection Papers (35%)
   Choosing from primary source listings, each student is required to write two Reflection Papers. Each paper should be written in 5-6 page length (typed and double-spaced) with historical/textual and/or critical theological analysis (see the handout 2).
   Due: Sep 25 (15%), Nov 20 (20%)
5. Two Take-Home Exams (40%)
   Take-home exams are to be answered in essay form.
   Due: Oct 23 (mid-term), Dec 13 (final)

Let’s do this way.
- Inclusive language is encouraged for class discussions and required for all written work.
- All written work (No. 4 and 5) must be turned in on time. Late papers will be marked down one full letter grade unless you get permission for extension in the case of an extremely difficult situation.
- Papers are to be accompanied by footnotes/endnotes/in-text notes and bibliographies appropriately (see the handout 3). If you have any questions about writing style, consult Kate L. Turabian's A Manual for Writers of Term Papers, Theses and Dissertations.
