CS 601 Christian Ethics

James R. Thobaben
NOTE:

Dr. Thobaben will be attending the Lausanne Conference in Thailand as a delegate for the bioethics section. Consequently, he WILL NOT be on campus from September 27 – October 8.

Each class session (there will be 11), therefore, has 20 minutes added to it to meet the course “contact hours” requirement.

Thank you for your taking this into account in your planning.

CS 601: Christian Ethics
Asbury Theological Seminary
Fall 2004

Meeting Time: Tuesday 6:15 – 8:20 pm
Meeting Location: M 202

Professor: James Thobaben, Ph.D.
Office Location: Estes 107
Office Hours: Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday 1:30 – 4:00 & by appointment

Purpose:

To prepare students for ministry by training them to analyze and address the moral life from a Christian perspective. To enable ministers to equip their congregations for understanding moral responsibility and for practicing ministry with integrity. To assist in training ministers who will draw all persons, including those who are excluded by society, into the care and guidance of the community of faith under the Lordship of Christ. To assist in the training of ministers who will exemplify the Gospel-mandated holy life.

Objectives:

Students will be able:

To provide a biblical basis for the moral life.
To describe various historical and contemporary Christian interpretations of social and personal moral issues.
To use the basic vocabulary of ethical analysis.
To use basic tools of social analysis.
To explain the Wesleyan emphasis on the various dimensions of holiness, specifically the expectation for personal integrity, moral concern, and social responsibility.
To recognize and explain at a basic level: the needs, contexts, and insights of various cultural groups and marginalized communities in society and in the church (these may include, but are not limited to, particularity arising from ethnic, gender, class, and geographic locations).
To explain how responses to moral problems and moral integrity shape congregational life.

- B = (3.0) Good work: strong, significant achievement of course objectives
- C = (2.0) Acceptable work: basic, essential achievement of course objectives
- D = (1.0) Marginal work: inadequate, minimal achievement of course objectives

Written Work: All written work must be typed with 12 point type, one inch margins on all four sides, and true double spacing. Follow page limit requirements. There will be a penalty for late papers commensurate with the degree of lateness and the adequacy of the excuse. Papers are due in class on assigned date.

All written work must use inclusive language when reference is made to human beings (male and female). This provides for both greater inclusion and greater precision.

Take-Home Integrative Essays (5 pages, typed, double-spaced) Three essay questions will require moral reflection on, and integration of, the various biblical and historical materials covered in weeks 1—6 (includes readings and discussion on Wesley and Dayton).

Final Examination (45 minutes in class) The examination is oriented toward objective knowledge of ethical theory and historic traditions.

Take-Home Case Study (5 pages, typed, double-spaced) Case Study will describe an issue in ministry and will require analysis from various moral and social perspectives.
