DO 660 The Christian Doctrine of Holiness

Paul W. Chilcote
PURPOSE/DESCRIPTION

This seminar is a survey of the doctrine of Christian holiness with special attention given to the contribution of John Wesley. The Wesleyan doctrine of perfect love, or Christian Perfection, is examined in the light of relevant materials in the Wesley corpus, the history of the doctrine in Methodist theology, and contemporary attempts to reformulate the concept of perfection with reference to Christian discipleship in various Wesleyan traditions today. A wide acquaintance with the classics of the holiness movement is cultivated. The experiential and ethical aspects of the doctrine are emphasized.

REQUIREMENTS AND EVALUATION

1. General Class Participation/Reading (10%)

Your lively and informed participation in all class activities is valuable for you and contributes to the edification of all. Active involvement in class will be taken into account in determining final grades, both in terms of presence and engagement. In order to be disciplined in the reading of the necessary materials for the class, you are required to submit a “reading report” in which you indicate that you have read the required texts for the course and any additional readings, noting the author, title, and total number of pages read. In order to obtain an “A-level grade” in this course, you must read at least 1,800 pages (min. 1,600 = “B-level”).

2. Seminar Presentations (70%)

Each student is required to make three different kinds of presentations:

A) Biblical Foundations Presentation (10%). The presentations on biblical texts should not be more than 10-15 minutes each in length. Presenters must prepare a one page handout for classmates to accompany their presentation on Friday, Feb. 13. Since this assignment/presentation comes on the first day of class, the instructor will assign specific tasks to students prior to the beginning of the seminar!!

B) Historical Background (20%). Each student will make a 20 minute presentation either on an influential figure in the Christian tradition or on one of Wesley’s sermons on Friday, March 5. These assignments will be made on the first day of class. Again, presenters must prepare at least a one page handout for classmates to accompany their presentation, including summarization of arguments and main points.

C) Presentations on the Plain Account Corpus (20%). These 20 minute presentations on Friday, March 26 will be made on primary source materials related directly to Wesley’s Plain Account of Christian Perfection. Again, presenters must prepare at least a one page handout for classmates to accompany their presentation, including summarization of arguments and main points.
D) Analytical Presentations or Discussion Leadership (20%). Especially during the second half of the seminar, much time will be spent looking at the tradition of “Christian Perfection” through a number of different lenses. There will be Discussions of chapters 2-6 of Crucified Love by Robin Maas. Five students will be assigned the task of leading those discussion sessions, either on Friday, April 16 or Friday, May 5. There are also five readings that reflect on different themes related to the doctrine that will require reporters. In either case, the leader or reporter should plan for about 20 minutes in class related to their task.

3. Written Assignments (20%)

Two additional writing assignments (10% each) are required in the seminar.

A) Reflective Praxis Plan (10%)

   You are required to write a two page praxis plan (about 500 words; typed, double spaced, 12 pt font) that concisely describes a plan of action in order to educate, experience, and deepen holiness of heart and life in yourself or others under your spiritual care. The praxis plan is due and will be discussed in the seminar on

B) Holiness Manifesto (10%)

   You are required to write a two page manifesto (about 500 words; typed, double spaced, 12 pt font) in which you complete the following statement: “In my Wesleyan tradition, ‘to go on to perfection’ means . . .”

May the desire of our hearts throughout this seminar be the substance of John Wesley’s prayer:

O God,

fill my soul with so entire a love of thee that I may love nothing but for thy sake.

Give me grace to study thy knowledge daily, that the more I know thee, the more I may love thee.

Let it be the one business of my life to glorify thee, by every word of my tongue and every work of my hand.
Amen.
