SM 601 Supervised Ministry

C. Milton Lowe
Welcome to EXL Supervised Ministries! Supervised Ministries is a required core component of the academic curriculum. It aims to bridge the gap between strictly academic theology and ministry practice. It integrates the light of the chapel, classroom and library with the field laboratory. That is, we want to reduce the gap between learned theology and internalized theology which applies itself to Christian experience and ministry practice. As John Wesley, quoting an ancient, quipped, “God made divinity practical”.

The following handbook is your manual for both of your Supervised Ministries courses. It sets forth the requirements and nature of Supervised Ministries. It helps guide you through the components and assignments of the course as well as provide you with standards of forms and formats for each of your courses. Thank you for paying close attention to the contents.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS
Master of Divinity students will take two Supervised Ministries courses for two (2) credit hours each. Each student will arrange (at least a semester in advance) with the pastor of an approved local church to do a two, continuous-semester’s placement at that church; however, students may, after having satisfactorily completed SM 601, opt out of SM 602 and substitute one of the following options:

OPTIONS
- You may determine that a ministry experience in an institutional setting such as a hospital, prison, campus ministry, certain military chaplaincy settings, or Christian outreach ministry will better serve your academic or vocational goals. Therefore, you may substitute the course SM 603 for SM 602. (Other substitutions are MS 660, MS 661, PC 660, PC 655, and PC 755.)
• You may determine that you will profit most from an intensive, cross-cultural ministry placement. You may substitute SM 604 for SM 602.

• You may want your second Supervised Ministry experience to be a full-time internship over the summer (or some comparable period of time) in a local church with the pastor of your choice. You may substitute SM 701 for SM 602.

NATURE OF THE EXL COURSE ASSIGNMENTS

You are a pioneer entering a new untracked realm of seminary education--virtual supervised ministry and field education! As far as a consultant to the Association of Theological Schools knows, Asbury is the first seminary experimenting with on-line field education. You may be making history! In any case, our hope in opening this medium is that you will have access to a quality education. Given the experimental nature of the course, we can expect hiccups along the way. Thank you for extending extra mercy and patience to one another during the semester. Supervised Ministry via EXL retains Supervised Ministries’ main components:

• Field experience
• Theological Reflection in a Reflection Seminar

Relative to the Field Experience component, each of you will have a field placement in a local church or ministry setting in which you will practice “hands-on” ministry. You will minister for at least eight hours a week for the duration of the semester under the supervision and mentoring of a qualified minister.

Relative to the Reflection Seminar component, EXL Supervised Ministries gets interesting! Led by a faculty seminar leader, you and other EXL students will reflect together theologically on your ministry experiences using your own self-referent case studies. The manner in which you in the EXL Supervised Ministry class will reflect on a case together will likely be done asynchronously. The term “asynchronous” means we can share thoughts that are continuous and in a logical stream even though we may communicate at different times throughout the week from widely different geographical sites. Please read more under the heading “Communicating with Each Other.”

Note to Student Pastors

Normally, when possible, student pastors are grouped together in their own class. Otherwise, they will be assigned to SM601/02/03 classes. Usually, student pastors are not required to have field supervisors. In lieu of a field supervisor, a student pastor will keep a dialogical journal (according to Student Pastor Handbook format located on Intranet, see Student Pastor Handbook section on journals) three days a week for the duration of the class. Once a month journal entries are to be posted to the professor.
A WORD ABOUT ATTENDANCE:

Your full participation throughout the week as structured by your Reflection Leader, is integral to this class. Excused absences must be handled with your professor.

ASSIGNMENTS

Your assignments for your S.Min. course include:

- Submitting a Covenant for Learning (information follows) by posting it to the professor’s office by the assigned date. See Module 1.
- Each week prior to coming to class, read thoroughly the case for the upcoming Reflection Seminar. In a minimum of two hours, complete the assignment “Reflection Seminar Preparation” to post each Sunday before midnight.
- Prepare One Case Study using the Extended Case Guidelines format at the end of the S.Min. Handbook. The Case Study is to be written in the proper format and presented for class processing.
- Submit a final evaluation (This form is found in the back of the Student Handbook or on the intranet.)
- ‘Meet’ with your professor at the end of the semester for an exit interview. The means of carrying out the Exit Interview will be established by your professor.

COMMUNICATING WITH EACH OTHER

You can access the course by clicking on the SMin601 folder on your First Class Client desktop. This folder will open a menu with the following options:

COURSE CENTER

The Course Center contains the course materials including a “welcome” video, Smin Orientation video, video of “How to Write a Case Study,” video of a case study being processed, Smin Handbook/Syllabus and ALL necessary forms. Videos will be mailed to you via U.S. mail. If you have not received a video by the assigned date, please e-mail ExL_Office@asburyseminary.edu

DISCUSSION CENTER

In the Discussion Center, class reflection and discussion of a case study will occur. The Discussion Center is like a message center in which your Reflection Seminar leader and all class members have access to everything posted here. [Post no private correspondence here!] At the end of each week, our discussions will be saved in the Archive Center for storage. If you want to revisit at any time during the semester a discussion we have had, visit the Archive Center.

OFFICE

The Office is the icon you may click for personal correspondence with the professor. Only your professor has access to messages sent here. Assignments and private correspondence should be sent here. No other class member is able to access anything sent to this office.

CHAT CENTER

This is the icon for out of “class “ talk. It is the virtual hallway or campus quad where informal conversation may be held. The CHAT CENTER is not to be used for any course-related material or assignment discussion. The Chat Center should be used only by three or less participants for non-course related discussion. When the Chat is over, conversations will be automatically deleted. Consult your professor as to whether or not this Chat Center will be used.

RESOURCE CENTER

The Resource Center holds specific links to a wealth of theological and other valuable resources and aids. By clicking this icon, you have full access to the B.L. Fisher Library and the religious and theological data bases of ATLA, EBSCO HOST and many others. Be sure you use the link of the B.L. Fisher Library and not the link from the web. Further, you have access here to your Student Information page. You register and get your grades here.

PRAYER FOLDER

Let us agree to pray for one another each week. Please post prayer requests in this Prayer Folder.

OUR AGREEMENT TOGETHER

Let us each agree to pray for one another weekly. For the cause of our Lord Jesus, we want one another to succeed. If you have a prayer request to share, please post it in the Prayer Folder. Your Reflection Leader is dedicating himself/herself to interacting on an almost daily basis with you. He/She will be expecting the same of you. Supervised Ministries aims to be more than just ministry practice. We seek to think and interact together biblically and theologically in and about the ministry practice. In the ExL medium, our interacting will extend throughout the week. Your Reflection Seminar leader will receive your e-mail and respond to it in the order in which it was received. In our homework assignments, class discussions, and research paper, please use correct spelling and proper grammatical and syntactical English.

HELP!

The team of people who are most able to help you with any of your questions regarding EXL are listed below. Their mission is to be helpful to you. For technical and EXL administrative matters regarding this course contact the following for your particular need:
Technical Matters:

Obtaining Library Materials and Assistance

General Questions: information_commons@asburyseminary.edu
Toll-free 1-866-454-2733
This is the best place to start when you have questions about library resources. Help is available Monday-Thursday from 8AM-7PM and Friday and Saturday from 8AM-5:45PM. If the people at the desk can not answer your questions, they will direct you to the person or department who can.

Materials Requests: library_loan@asburyseminary.edu
Or call toll-free 1-866-454-2733
ExL Students may request books, photocopies or emailed attachments of journal articles/reference books from Asbury Seminary’s Library. Please allow 3-10 business days for all requests to be filled. Contact the library loan office for information on costs and instructions on how to make requests. ExL students are also encouraged to make use of local library resources. Students who live within a 50 mile radius of either the Florida or the Wilmore campus should come to campus to obtain their materials.

Research Questions:Hannah_Kirsch@asburyseminary.edu
Or call the toll-free number and ask to be transferred to Hannah (x2189).
ExL students are encouraged to contact Hannah Kirsch for research assistance including help choosing a paper topic, determining the best sources to use for a paper, finding book reviews, or research questions about using the online databases or any other library materials.

Online Databases:
To access the online library resources including the library catalog and full-text journal databases, go to www.asburyseminary.edu/library and enter your 10 digit student id number in the login box. Your student id is provided on the biographical information section of the student registration webpage. Add a 2 and enough 0’s to the front to make a ten digit number.
(20000XXXXX where XXXX = your student id). If you have questions, contact the information commons desk.

Buying Books. Address an e-mail to ATS Bookstore. Type in on the “address” line of a new e-mail, ATS_Bookstore@asburyseminary.edu. This will send your message to our local Cokesbury bookstore on the Wilmore campus. You may also call the Cokesbury bookstore toll free at 1-866-855-8252.

For questions regarding the syllabus or our course, post them to your Reflection Leader in the Discussion Center. If you have a particular question, it is likely others in the class will have a similar question and will benefit from the exchange. We want to “iron out any wrinkles” that may inhibit the learning process.

Administrative/Academic Matters:

If you have Smin related concerns of any kind such as, academic matters, finding a placement matched to your needs, exploring the possibility of an internship or whatever, please contact our office. Claire Williams, the Administrative Secretary, is ready to assist you at claire_williams@asburyseminary.edu. (859) 858-2224. The fax number for faxing assignments if needed is (859) 858-2168.

TEXTS

- This SUPERVISED MINISTRY HANDBOOK is your working guide and textbook for two semesters of field education. It serves for SM 601, SM 602, and SM 603. Therefore, it is recommended that you keep it in a separate three-ring binder, since it is not a book-bound. STUDENT PASTORS who are enrolled in SM 601C will not use this handbook but will use the handbook titled, SUPERVISED MINISTRIES SM 601, SM 602 - STUDENT PASTOR.

  In addendum of this handbook is the EXTENDED CASE GUIDELINES (Some professors may also use the text CASE BRIEF GUIDELINES). The self-referent case study based on our EXTENDED CASE GUIDELINES format is the basic learning instrument for courses in supervised ministries. This addendum provides you with the model format and instruction for good case writing. This handbook can be purchased at the Cokesbury seminary bookstore.

- Other required texts:
  SM 601, 602  The text Lay Leadership for Ministry Training is required for Courses SM 601 and 602. This text is needed for the Pastor and Local Church Lay Committee members of the local church where you serve. You can download the 7 page Lay Committee Handbook from the Intranet. The text Field Supervisors Handbook: Local Church should be distributed to your supervising pastor to familiarize him/her with the role of supervising and mentoring pastor. Copies are available from the S.Min. office or may be downloaded by clicking on the Course Center.
SM 603  The text Field Supervisors Handbook: Institutional should be distributed to your supervisor to familiarize him/her with the role of supervising and mentoring.

YOUR PLACEMENT AND FIELD SUPERVISOR: need assistance?

Rather than assign you to a placement, we assume you would prefer to choose the field supervisor with whom you might best work. As an EXL student, you likely have obtained a placement before enrolling in the course. If you have not, you will need to find a ministry placement in your locale. The following guidelines will assist you in finding the placement appropriate for you:

- For local church placement, consider choosing one in your own denomination. Consult with your denominational supervisor if you are unsure.

- Speak to the pastor of the church or the supervisor of the ministry which you are interested in doing your placement about the possibility of her/him supervising you. As far as the S.Min. expectations of the supervisor go, keep these expectations in mind:
  - Your field supervisor should be an experienced practitioner with at least five years of ministry experience. Generally, supervisors should have an appropriate academic degree.
  - Your field supervisor should be able to minister within Asbury’s Statement of Faith, found in front of the school’s academic catalog.
  - See mentoring and supervising you as a service to Jesus Christ and His Church.
  - Be willing to meet with you for an hour a week for theological reflection.
  - Be willing to receive instruction on the role of supervisor and mentor.

- When you have obtained approval from a supervisor, please have your supervisor complete a Field Supervisor Profile found in the S.Min. Student Handbook which is found in the Course Center. This must be posted or mailed to the S.Min. Office for the Director’s approval before class begins.

- Helpful advice regarding your placement:
  - * Work a year in advance to secure a placement
  - * Involve yourself in the local church at which you will do your placement
  - * In the three-year academic course sequence, SMin is supposed to be completed in the second 33 hours of study. In the four-year academic course sequence, SMin is supposed to be completed in the third 24 hours of study.

  * All placement assignments must be confirmed with and approved by our office as soon as possible following pre-registration during the semester prior to the actual placement. Please feel free to consult our Administrative Secretary, Claire Williams, claire_williams@asburyseminary.edu if you have any questions.
CONCLUSION

In conclusion, Supervised Ministry provides you with an opportunity to meld Christian mind and ministry practice.

‘War stories’ circulate about supervised ministry. Some undoubtedly are true. For many students, having to anticipate performing in ministry, sometimes for the first time, is not without its anxiety; however, experience bears out that most students have rewarding experiences in supervised ministry.

One recent graduate offered this unsolicited comment, “I would encourage all seminary students to participate in the S.Min. program whole-heartedly with a teachable spirit. There are things we learn by seeing them done and then doing them ourselves that just cannot be taught in a classroom.”
