The gifts he gave were that some would be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, some pastors and teachers, to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ, until all of us come to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to maturity, to the measure of the full stature of Christ. WELCOME

Welcome to CL613 ExL “Equipping The Laity.” One of the greatest joys I have experienced in the last 28 years as a United Methodist pastor has been witnessing the people of God embracing the ministry that God has for them in the local church and in the world. In fact, I am absolutely convinced that a major move of the Holy Spirit within the Church right now is that of identifying, equipping, encouraging, and releasing women and men into a life of discipleship and ministry. The Reformation tenet of “The Priesthood of All Believers” is still very much unfolding!

In CL613 I want to share with you some Biblically based and historically proven principles of adult discipleship that lead to ministry engagement. I will be moving from a thoroughly Wesleyan background and understanding of what it means to be a Christian; and I will be sharing from my own rich experience of discipleship training in five different local congregations.

This class is for you if you have a deep desire to see the people under your care equipped for the ministry that God has for them.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

With the end in view of a local congregation fulfilling God’s purposes and being filled with disciples who are exercising their spiritual gifts and callings to ministry, we will examine seven major components necessary for an equipping ministry.
1. The Biblical foundation for raising up disciples who serve as leaders, managers, ministers, and prayer warriors.
2. The direction of pastoral leadership necessary to fulfill an equipping ministry.
3. Dynamics of the Wesleyan Class Meeting and small group accountability.
4. Essential dynamics of small group leadership.
5. A two-year model for discipleship formation.
6. The strategy of calling people to intentional apprenticeship.
7. Ministry deployment and team formation.

COMPETENCIES TO BE DEVELOPED BY THE STUDENT

Students taking this course should come out of the experience with a conceptual frame-work of how to walk into a ministry setting and set up an intensive two-year discipleship course that would result in ministry deployment and ministry team formation.

Students should first have a clear understanding of the Biblical role of the pastor to equip the saints for ministry. A huge conceptual shift must take place here of moving away from a world view that sees laity as the object of ministry to a more Biblical view that trains laity to be in ministry.

Students should then be able to take the foundational principles of Wesleyan discipleship and implement those principles in a culturally appropriate manner in the ministry context within which they find themselves. A beginning grasp of small group dynamics should be part of this competency.

Students in CL613 should have an understanding of the goal of discipleship formation, which is ministry deployment, and how ministry is best done within a team setting.

Throughout CL613, students should be attentive to the four objectives of all ATS Leadership courses:

1. Demonstrate an understanding of the four classical organizational frames and contingency leadership.
2. Recognize selected organizational change processes, and how to resolve the inherent conflict that accompanies.
3. Practice basic disciplines for personal leadership development and demonstrate a comprehension of key strategies of developing other servant leaders.
4. Use Biblical and theological criteria for evaluating leadership style and practice.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Small Groups

Students will interact in small groups with two primary purposes in mind: (1) To have the experience of growing together in a covenant group setting; and (2) To work together as an actual ministry team.

Each small accountability group will work through the devotionals within Devotional Life In The Wesleyan Tradition: A Workbook, and within the applicable weeks of A Guide To Prayer (fall semester will cover September through mid-December). Group members will both share with one another regarding their devotional dispositions, insights and prayer requests, and they will lovingly encourage one another with appropriate accountability and by praying for one another.

During the first 8 weeks of the course the accountability groups will work through Steve Harper’s workbook, Devotional Life In The Wesleyan Tradition: A Workbook.

The purpose of the above is to actually experience the dynamics of living within a covenant rule in the context of Christian community and to personally experience the major Wesleyan components of discipleship formation.

In addition, each covenant group will have a group assignment involving surveying churches or specialized ministry organizations regarding their practice of equipping disciples for ministry. Every member of the group will survey two local churches or ministry organizations regarding their specific methods of ministry formation (see interview form below).

Groups will then present their findings to the entire class and make their findings available to the entire class in a written report.

Small group members will evaluate each other (form will be distributed at the beginning of class). This evaluation will count for 25% of student’s overall grade for the course.

Group assignments and evaluations are for the critical purpose of assisting students in understanding the hugely important role of teams within any ministry organization.

Foundational Paper

Students in CL613 will compose a Foundational Paper in which this essential question is addressed: “How am I being called to equip the people of God for the ministry of God?”

This integrative, reflection paper shall be written in first person and shall adhere to guidelines as found in Form and Style (12th Ed.) by Carol Slade, Wilmington, MA. Houghton Mifflin Trade. Please use 14-point font and 1 inch margins. This paper should be 7 to 10 pages in length.

The purpose of an integrative, reflection paper is for students to critically and creatively integrate insights from the course (readings, lectures, discussions, video clips, etc.) into their “world view” of ministry and then reflect upon the implications of those insights for their anticipated ministry situation.

The Foundational Paper shall include these subheadings:

- Biblical and Theological Foundations For An Equipping Ministry
- The Personal Spiritual Formation Lifestyle I Will Need For An Equipping Ministry
- The Ministry Context I Expect To Serve In
- The Unique Gifts and Graces I Bring Into this Calling
- Where I Anticipate Needing Help

In addition to drawing upon classroom input, the Foundational Paper should also include pertinent quotes and insights from Buckingham, Stott, and Winseman. The Foundational Paper will count for 25% of the course grade.

Ministry Paper

Students should write this final integrative reflection paper in 1st person and should situate this paper within their anticipated ministry assignment. Drawing upon class input along with insights from Harper, Henderson, Mallory, and Muto, students should address this primary issue: “How I plan on employing Wesleyan principles for discipleship formation within my anticipated ministry setting.”

This 8 to 10 page paper should include, but not be limited to, the following major subheadings:

- Anticipated Ministry Setting
  (No more than 1 paragraph recounting where you anticipate serving after seminary).
- The Purpose of My Ministry
(The desired end result of your ministry should determine the means of your ministry. Given your anticipated ministry setting, in this section depend upon formative imagination—as enlightened by God’s Word and by the Wesleyan faith and formation tradition—to answer a basic question: “Why am I here in this ministry position?” The question should approach both the “being” as well as the “doing” side of life in Christ. In essence this question is seeking to set the compass of your ministry.)

- Primary Wesleyan Principles For Discipleship Formation And How they Apply to My Anticipated Ministry Setting
- MAP (My “Ministry Action Plan”)

The “Ministry Action Plan” or MAP is a crucial exercise in which students should seek nothing less than guidance from the Holy Spirit as to how they are to apply Wesleyan discipleship to their anticipated ministry setting. Take a bold leap of faith and move forward with this “what if.” What if you found yourself in your anticipated ministry setting and you could design God’s MAP for that situation? What would the MAP be?

Of course you will need to follow the lead of the Holy Spirit in adapting any MAP to the cultural setting in which you actually end up serving. This exercise will at least give you a beginning point from which to conceptually launch the ministry the Lord has for you.

Charts and time-lines are encouraged within your MAP. Incorporate any charts or time-lines as “appendices” (pages after your 8 to 10 page body).

The Ministry Paper will count for 50% of the course grade.
