PURPOSE
An opportunity for further reading on the life and theology of John Wesley. The totality of Wesley’s theological doctrines will be studied in reference to his life, work, religious experience on the evangelical revival of the eighteenth-century. Taught concurrently with DO 691, John Wesley’s Theology For Today, this course provides the student with a greater first-hand acquaintance with Wesley and key works on his theology.

RELATIONSHIP TO DO690, WESLEY’S THEOLOGY FOR TODAY
This course is designed to be a supplement to the basic course on theology of Wesley. It should normally be taken concurrently with DO690 to provide the student a greater depth of understanding the life and theology of Wesley.

LEARNING GOALS
1. To provide an introduction to the theology and thought patterns of John Wesley in the following areas:
   - Prevenient grace and sin; Universal atonement and transforming grace; Justification and regeneration; Sanctification and Christian perfection; Christian life and means of grace;
   - Doctrine of God the Father; Doctrines of Grace; Predestination; Religious Authority;
   - Pluralism and the Bible.

2. To offer an analysis of the background factors that influenced Wesley’s life and thought.

3. To introduce the life of Wesley and his influence in shaping eighteenth-century Methodism.

4. To understand how Methodism is a part of the larger Christian Church and where it contributes to it, especially in the areas of theology and the practice of the Christian life.

5. To see some historical models of the transforming power of grace in the application of Biblical truth to individual lives, the Church and society.

6. To recognize the practical implications of the theological ideas.

7. To understand the positive and negative lessons from the rise of Methodism and personal lives, the collected body of believers, and the culture at large.

8. To be able from within this heritage to address the theological issues that confront the church and the world today. This goal will be accomplished primarily through lecture and discussion in class.
REQUIREMENTS

I. Study Assignments

A. Reading and outlining of assignments as indicated in the syllabus.

B. A collateral chart (included in syllabus) is to be kept which should include a record of the number of hours per week spent reading, outlining and taking notes. The number of hours studied will determine the grade options available to the student for the entire course. To be eligible for:
   “A” = a total of at least 36 hours should be spent over the term.
   “B” = at least 33 hours per term.
   “C” = at least 30 hours per term.
   At least 28 hours per term is required for a passing grade.

C. A notebook should be kept of all outlines and notes taken (but not class notes), plus a record of the student’s reading. A grade will be given the notebook and the completion of assignments on time. It will constitute the final grade.
   Notebooks are due December 9 to the Faculty Secretary or through the SPO.

II. ATTENDANCE

Since this course is designed as a complement to DO690, there are no class sessions, all the work is to be done like an independent study course. If individual direction is needed, please make an appointment with the professor.

III. TEXTBOOKS

A. Required:
   __________, A Plain Account of Christian Perfection.
   Harold Lindstrom, Wesley and Sanctification.
   Kenneth Collins, A Real Christian.

B. Recommended:
   Thomas Oden, John Wesley’s Scriptural Christianity.
   Allan Coppedge, John Wesley in Theological Debate.

C. If all the required and recommended readings have already been completed, then please read/outline:
   Richard Heitzenrater, Wesley and the People Called Methodist.
READING SCHEDULE

Outlining should be done so that the key arguments from any chapter or sermon can be seen from it. Normally two or three pages per chapter and one page per sermon will cover the material, although here are several exceptions to this guideline. In your syllabus is a guide to taking notes from Wesley’s A Plain Account of Christian Perfection. This should be used for the assignment on A Plain Account October 23. After September 11, all work for the week should be done by class time on Wednesdays.

“THE BEST OF ALL IS, GOD IS WITH US”
A Plain Account of Christian Perfection
John Wesley
Study guide

Introduction:
As you read through Wesley’s work on Christian perfection/entire sanctification, you will discover he has given us quite a combination of materials related to this subject. Most of these were shorter writings of Wesley done on other occasions. He put them together in this total package without rewriting them. That accounts for the duplication you will find in this work. It may be helpful in trying to get a simple yes or no, or short answer to the question. Take enough notes that you can fully address the issue from Wesley’s perspective and keep a record of your page numbers for your answer should you desire to use these materials in some other way.

1. List the major terms Wesley uses for Christian perfection/entire sanctification. When you are finished, indicate three or four of these Wesley uses most often.
2. List the Scripture passages he uses under each term or phrase for this doctrine.
3. List the ways Wesley describes a person who has experienced entire sanctification, i.e., what is characteristic of their lives, attitudes, etc.
4. In what sense may a Christian not be perfect?
5. In what sense may a Christian be perfect?
6. How is perfection related to mistakes, infirmities, temptations?
7. When does this experience happen?
8. Is it an instantaneous experience or gradual?
9. How does Wesley relate these two things?
10. How does Wesley describe sin? Note the difference between sin, properly so called, and sin, improperly so called.
11. Should one give testimony to this experience? If so, why and in what manner?
12. What is the evidence one would have to know that he had this experience?
13. What is the condition for receiving this experience? How does one seek it?
14. Can you lose this experience? Regain it?
15. What are the advices Wesley gives to avoid enthusiasm/fanaticism/extremism, especially regarding this teaching?
16. How does Wesley counsel dealing with subjective experiences like dreams, visions, impressions, etc.?
17. Summarize Wesley’s doctrine of Christian perfection.
