I. COURSE DESCRIPTION

In an age of increasing mobility across cultural boundaries it becomes more and more necessary to understand the Christian faith from a global perspective. Several issues, therefore, will be addressed in this course. Primarily, how do we make decisions regarding that which is essential for Christian commitment across cultural lines? How do we detach ourselves from parts of our gospel understanding that may be culturally bound? How can we sensitize ourselves to issues than transcend cultural boundaries that might actually assist our communication of a relevant transcultural gospel?

II. COURSE OBJECTIVES

A. A broader understanding of what is cross-cultural and transcultural. Cross-cultural relates to boundaries (at home and abroad) that force concepts and ideologies to be communicated differently. Transcultural relates to concepts and ideologies that communicate with similar to equal effectiveness across cultural boundaries (at home and abroad).

B. A clearer understanding of the theological essentials relevant to the gospel.
C. A study of anthropological and contextual (both de-culturing and re-culturing) considerations.
D. Some practical experience in witnessing in a cross-cultural settings.
