Competencies to be developed by the student:
In this one hour course, students will...

- reflect upon their own theology of intercessory prayer by: (a) reading the texts, Intercession, by Dutch Sheets and Intercessors, by Beth Alvis and Tommi Femrite; (b) and by attending the seminar
- understand ways for developing the prayer ministry in a local church: (a) by reading the booklet, The House of Prayer; and (b) by attending the seminar

Required Texts:
- Dutch Sheets, Intercession
- Beth Alvis and Tommi Femrite, Intercessors
- Mell Winger, The House of Prayer (48 page booklet)

Course Requirements and Means of Evaluation

Students will….

- attend the workshop on prayer ministry offered by Mell Winger, March 8-9, 2002
- read the assigned texts
- write a 8-10 page integrative paper drawing from the books and the workshop. In this reflection paper students are expected to summarize their thoughts and discoveries related to each of the two course goals listed above. They are expected to write cogently and succinctly, being intentional about referring to specific pages in texts and statements from the presenter, rather than over-generalizing their responses. This paper will be due by April 19th.
  All work will be read, evaluated and returned.
