MS610 (DL)
A SYLLABUS AND GENERAL GUIDE FOR
"The Ministry of Evangelism"
Spring Semester, 2009
Tuesdays 2:30-5:15.
Robert G. Tuttle, Jr., Professor Asbury Theological Seminary

I. COURSE DESCRIPTION
The course equips students with contemporary models and strategies of personal, congregational, and world evangelization based on biblical, historical and cultural foundations. Attention will be given to recognizing the social, personal and spiritual needs of people and relating the gospel to such needs. Efforts will be made to develop an integrated Wesleyan model of evangelism bringing strategies and methods into closer harmony with God's ultimate purpose, the great commission, and the commandment of love. This is a basic course for all that seek to serve Christ and his Church with a global consciousness and a local effectiveness.

II. COURSE OBJECTIVES
A. A clear understanding of the gospel with regard to content and delivery. Content: The student should know the basic content of the gospel as taken from Scripture and informed by reason, tradition, and experience. Delivery: While having an overall feel for the different approaches to evangelism, the student should have developed a style of presentation that acknowledges his/her uniqueness and ability to proclaim the Good News in several different kinds of settings.
B. Some practical experience in witnessing. Each student will be required to present the gospel in several different settings and write a number of case studies evaluating their own effectiveness.
C. An awareness of one's own sphere of influence. Each student should be able to identify those opportunities where they can minister most effectively.
D. Each student should have developed some specific tools for motivation churches toward evangelism.
E. Each student will be required to develop a specific program of evangelism for a particular local church.

IV. COURSE EVALUATION PROCEDURES

Requirements:
A. Attend and participate in class sessions.
B. Complete assigned readings of approximately 1200 pages (800 pages in the required texts), and at least two texts from the collateral reading (for the remaining 400 pages).
C. Four book critiques limited to one single-spaced, typewritten page (three from the five required texts and one from the collateral reading).
D. Three case studies using the prepared forms (to be explained).
E. Integrative term report (maximum of 10-12 pages, typewritten, double-spaced) composed as if it is to be given to the ruling board of a local congregation (or youth group) known to you. It should incorporate recommendations for a more effective evangelistic outreach, taking into consideration the nature of your community, and the condition of your church (or youth group). Apply what you deem helpful from the course readings, lectures, practicums, and your personal involvement. Note the additional guidelines at the end of the syllabus.

Grading scale for course: 1. Four book critiques 40%
2. Three case studies 10% (not actually graded)
3. Term Report 40%
4. Class participation 10%

V. Online Section Descriptions and Communication Guidelines

The Virtual Classroom is built upon the open-source Moodle platform. By logging into http://one.asburyseminary.edu and clicking on the Virtual Campus tab (upper right corner) you will have access to this course and be able to collaborate with participant-colleagues and me throughout the course. The following are functions with which you should familiarize yourself:

1. The Course Information Center contains many features to be used throughout the semester:
   a) Course News and Announcements, where I will post items important for the entire class;
   b) Syllabus, where a copy of the syllabus is provided;
   c) To Professor, which is a way for you to post a message directly to me and we can discuss an issue privately;
   d) Course Questions, which is a public forum where you can publicly post any questions you have regarding the course so others may see your message and respond. Anytime you have a question or comment about the course, the schedule, the assignments, or anything else that may be of interest to other participants and me you should post it to the Course Questions Forum;
   e) Prayer Forum, which is a public forum where you can post prayer concerns and praises for all to see. This is a way for us to build community;
   f) Open Forum, which is a public forum where you can post anything that is not course-related for all to see. Examples include someone getting married, an upcoming birthday, discussions on topics not course-related, etc. This is a way for us to build community.

2. Modules, which are located below the Course Information Center, will contain forums where group discussions will take place, documents or other files to download or view online, and assignment links where you will post your assignments to me. Modules will be clearly labeled so you can follow along during the semester.

Accessing Information Commons Materials

1. General Questions:
   a. The Information Commons is a "one-stop shop" for all student research, circulation and technical needs. The Information Commons hours are posted here: http://www.asburyseminary.edu/information/hours.htm

2. Materials Requests:
   a. To search the library catalog for available materials, click here: http://www.asburyseminary.edu/information/index.htm
   b. Virtual Students may request books, photocopies or emailed attachments of journal articles/ portions of reference books from Asbury Seminary’s Library. Please allow 3-10 business days for all requests to be filled. Contact the Information Commons for costs and instructions on how to make requests.
   c. Virtual students are encouraged to make use of local library resources. Students who live within a 50 mile radius of either the Florida or the Kentucky campus should come to campus to obtain their materials.

3. Research Questions:
   a. Virtual students are encouraged to contact the Information Commons for research assistance including help determining the best sources to use for a paper, finding book reviews, or research questions about using the online databases or any other library materials.

4. Online Databases:
   a. To access the online library resources including the library catalog and full-text journal databases, go to http://www.asburyseminary.edu/information/index.htm and enter your 10-digit student ID# number in the login box. Your student ID# is provided on the biographical information section of the student registration webpage. Add a 2 and enough 0s to the front to make a 10-digit number (20000XXXXX where XXXXX = your student id).

Copyright Policies

The copyright law of the United States (title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specific conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.

2. The Celtic Way of Evangelism, George Hunter, III, Abingdon Press (140 pp.).
5. Can We Talk?, Abingdon Press, Robert Tuttle, Jr. (110 pp.).

Related Texts: Read at least one of the following not previously read.

The Heart of Youth Ministry, Goddard and Acevedo.
To Spread the Power, George Hunter, III (200 pp.).
How to Reach Secular People, George Hunter, III (Abingdon, 1992).
Becoming a Contagious Christian, Hybels and Mittelberg (221 pp.).
Tell It Well, J. T. Seamands.
Shortening the Leap, from Honest Doubt to Enduring Faith, Robert Tuttle, Jr. (Bristol House, 2007).

Recommended Reading: (I forbid you to freak on this. You've got the rest of your life to read all of these.)
Case Study Report on an Evangelistic Conversation

(Confine report to the limits of this page leaving at least a one-inch margin for comments by the professor)

1. Background. Context of the conversation: where, when, with whom? How did it come about? What were your intentions, expectations, anxieties, etc.?
2. Description. How did the conversation begin, continue, conclude? What happened between you and the other person? Between the other person and God?
3. Analysis and Evaluation. Identify issues, significant openings and closings of response and what was going on in the relationship. How did the person evaluate the experience?

HOW TO DO A BOOK CRITIQUE

1. A book critique is not:
   - A summary.
   - A reflection paper.
2. A book critique should contain the following:
   - Analysis of the mechanics (more objective: 10-15%).
   - Structure of the book.
   - Flow: How does the material fit together?
   - Resources.
   - Analysis of content (more objective: 50-60%).
   - Describe: What is it? Was it achieved?
   - Strengths: What does the book do, contribute, etc.
   - Weaknesses: What is missing, etc.
   - Application (more subjective: 25-34%).
   - How does this information impact my ministry?
   - What do I find helpful, not so helpful, etc.
3. Use a writing resource manual.
   - Some resources to keep in mind.
4. Assignment grading information.
   - Perception: Did you understand the material?
   - Thoroughness: Did you cover the main elements?
   - Clarity: Did you clearly communicate your ideas?
   - Objectivity: Did you represent the author's views?
   - Mechanics: Did you use a proper writing technique (see above)?
   - Application: How did this material impact you?
     - Integration: Can you incorporate what you learned into your life and ministry (most important)?

GUIDELINES FOR THE INTEGRATIVE TERM REPORT

Assignment Instructions:

- Content: The intent here is to provide you with a working tool to take to your local church or organization.
4. Each report should contain a brief description of the church or organization in question (history, location, particular problems, etc.).

3. State your program (be specific, do not try to spread yourself too thin).
   - State your resources (how do you plan to implement the program).
   - Project a timeline (this part of the program should be completed by É).
   - Describe your desired results.

   Style: Keep it simple.
   - Watch your syntax and grammar (proof read your paper).
   - Avoid run on sentences (Why did God invent the semicolon?).
   - Feel free to use headings.

   Documentation: Some of this can be omitted from the copy presented to the church or organization.
   - Footnotes (identify your sources).
   - Bibliography.
