NT 601 Intermediate Greek Fall 2005 – Dr. Mulholland

PERSPECTIVE: “That which we speak, we speak not in words imparted by human wisdom, but in (words) imparted by the Spirit, interpreting spiritual things to spiritual persons.” (1 Cor. 2:13). With this single sentence, Paul encapsulates the vital role of language in the communication of the profound realities of God’s realm of being. Obviously Paul understands language functioning on two levels, the human level and a deeper, spiritual level. This course presumes that it is impossible to plumb the depths of the spiritual level without a comprehensive grasp of the use of language at the human level.

PURPOSE: We will seek in this course to offer to God a discipline of study of the Greek of Luke and Acts that will engender a greater comprehension of first-century Greek at the human level which will enhance a richer experience of the spiritual level being conveyed by Luke.

PARTICULARS: I prayerfully expect that your faithful stewardship and discipline in this course will be used of the Lord to enable you to acquire the following knowledge and abilities:

1. Knowledge of all Greek words used 50 or more times in the New Testament.
2. Ability to recognize and know the use of all the tenses and moods of the Greek verb.
3. Ability to understand and translate accurately the various uses of the genitive and dative cases.
4. Ability to diagram complex Greek sentences.
5. Increased ability to sight-read the Greek New Testament.

PROCEDURES: The following will provide some of the scholarly disciplines of loving obedience and stewardship through which I trust the Lord will enable us to actualize His purposes for this course:

1. Texts: Nestle-Aland, Novum Testamentum Graece Bruce M. Metzger, Lexical Aids for Students of New Testament Greek
   Herbert W. Smyth, Greek Grammar
2. Preparation
   a. It is hoped that you will enter into a covenant of prayer for the class and the course.
   b. It is urged that each period of individual study be started with prayer, interlaced with prayer, and dedicated to God in prayer at its close.
   c. It is expected that you will be a faithful steward of time in two areas:
i. Consistent participation in class sessions
ii. Commit at least two hours to the Lord for prayer and study in preparation for each class hour.
d. It is expected that you will come to class fully prepared through disciplined prayer and study so as to be all God wants you to be in the class session.
e. It is presumed that you will exhibit graduate level competence in comprehension of reading integration of learning, and presentation of understanding.

3. Class Sessions:
a. It is expected that you will be prepared to translate from any portion of the text assigned for the day.
b. It is expected that you will bring to the class unresolved grammatical or syntactical issues encountered in preparation.
c. On any day, a quiz may be given on one or two sentences from the assigned text.

4. Presentations:
a. Recitations: Over the course of the semester, everyone will have the opportunity to translate in class on several occasions.
b. Quizzes: These will be scheduled and will usually be on vocabulary but may include grammar, diagramming, or translation.
c. Tests: These will be scheduled and will be on a previously announced combination of vocabulary, grammar, diagramming, and translation.
d. Final Exam: Will focus on sight translation with some grammatical analysis.

5. Grades:
a. Recitations: 20%
b. Quizzes: 30%
c. Tests: 30%
d. Final Exam 20%

PERFORMANCE:
1. Grade Scale
   A = 93-100
   A- = 90-92
   B+ = 88-89
   B  = 83-87
   B- = 80-82, etc.

2. Absences/Lates
   Unexcused absences up to 10% of class sessions will not be penalized. 10% and above will be penalized by a one grade-level reduction of final grade for each 10%.
   Three unexcused lates will be equivalent to one unexcused absence.
